

Media release: Tuesday, 3 November 2009

Council Announces New City Centre Approach

Wollongong City Council will announce the appointment of a City Centre Place Manager and a City Centre Advisory Committee tomorrow, Wednesday, 4 November at 11.15am.

As part of a strategic approach to revitalise the heart of Wollongong, the Place Manager and Advisory Committee will be responsible for setting future direction, seeking out funding opportunities and engaging with different stakeholders to support and attract investment in the city.

The new Place Manager and nine Committee Members will be at the announcement tomorrow for photographs and interviews with the media.